1. STATUTORY POWERS OF THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

The Director of Central Intelligence is empowered to terminate the employment of any officer or employee of the Agency whenever he deems such action necessary or advisable in the interests of the United States. Termination action under this authority, quoted below, is within the sole discretion of the Director of Central Intelligence, and no appeals procedure is provided for by law.

"Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6 of the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 555), or the provisions of any other law, the Director of Central Intelligence may, in his discretion, terminate the employment of any officer or employee of the Agency whenever he shall deem such termination necessary or advisable in the interests of the United States, but such termination shall not affect the right of such officer or employee to seek or accept employment in any other department or agency of the Government if declared eligible for such employment by the United States Civil Service Commission."

2. EMPLOYMENT REVIEW BOARD

The Director may appoint an Employment Review Board to advise him concerning any particular case.
